

Chart of the San Juans & Sidney BC

If anyone is interested I have several lists:

INVENTORY: a pretty complete inventory of almost all the things I carry on my Rhodes for a trip of this length (for ENOSIS) it was almost 3 weeks as we sailed almost two more weeks after the end of the NW Rally.

ABANDOND SHIP BAG: modified a bit for this sailing area

TO DO/DID LIST: Things I had to do on my boat for this particular trip. This also includes hours on each thing and cost with a total cost of the trip. Also includes a rough breakdown of monies actually spent on the trip with some erudite rationalization of how it was a good idea and really wasn't that expensive. If you are interested you can reach me back channel at.
